Helen Lee Greenberg is a highly skilled litigation attorney committed to effectively representing clients in reaching their goals either it be pre-suit, litigation and/or trial.

Ms. Greenberg is an experienced litigator with a diverse civil litigation practice in the defense of insured and self-insured business entities and individuals. She regularly represents clients in negotiations, mediations, arbitration and/or litigation in State and Federal Courts in California. She has represented clients involving disputes related to, among other things, premises liability, products liability, commercial and business litigation, catastrophic injury cases, defense of Prop 65 actions, landlord tenant, hospitality, transportation, wrongful death, ADA Compliance and Defense, construction site accidents and professional liability matters.

Ms. Greenberg's general liability practice involves the representation of retailers, hotels, commercial and residential property owners and managers in personal injury cases arising from accidents on their premises. She also handles industrial accident cases, which often involve complex machinery or operations, and understanding of OSHA regulations. She also has significant experience defending manufacturers of industrial machinery, household products and various component parts, in matters typically involving fires, explosions and large property loss. She has also represented architects, engineers and construction managers in professional liability matters.

Ms. Greenberg is a proponent and frequent user of mediation and informal settlement negotiations as a means to reduce clients' litigation costs. She has mediated hundreds of cases prior to trial with successful results and works closely with her clients in recommending effective strategies towards reaching the clients' unique set of goals. Ms. Greenberg has been recognized for her excellence as being selected for consecutive years as a Super Lawyer "Rising Star" and Top Women Attorneys in Northern California.

Ms. Greenberg is admitted in California and all United States District Courts in California.
