Mr. Guzzetta is a recognized expert in privacy law, and has almost 15 years of experience counseling clients in complying with U.S. privacy laws, including the California Consumer Privacy Act (CCPA), the Children’s Online Privacy Protection Act (COPPA), the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA), the Telephone Consumer Protection Act (TCPA), California’s data broker registration law, and the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act. He also has extensive experience counseling clients in complying with various foreign privacy and data security laws and regulations, including the European Union’s General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), the Chinese Personal Information Protection Law (PIPL), Canada’s Personal Information Protection and Electronic Documents Act (PIPEDA) and Quebec’s Law 25.

He regularly drafts privacy policies, data processing agreements, and privacy-related disclosures, counsels clients on the privacy-related aspects of financings and change of control transactions, and responds to data security incidents. His treatise, The Rutter Group’s California Practice Guide: Privacy Law (2023), was repeatedly cited by the California Court of Appeals in a landmark ruling relating to the California Privacy Protection Agency’s regulations issued pursuant to the California Privacy Rights Act amendments to the California Consumer Privacy Act (California Privacy Protection Agency v. Super. Ct. (Cal. Chamber of Commerce), 99 Cal. App. 5th 705 (2024)). The treatise is available from Thomson Reuters and online through Westlaw.

Mr. Guzzetta is also a seasoned trial lawyer of over 20 years. He has extensive experience in all phases of litigation and trial. Mr. Guzzetta routinely prepares cases for trial, engaging in final discovery, drafting pre-trial motions and other papers, and engaging in last-minute settlement discussions. When cases cannot be settled, he has extensive experience trying cases in judicial and non-judicial forums throughout California as first chair trial counsel. He regularly drafts and litigates motions to dismiss, demurrers, discovery motions, motions for summary judgment, in limine motions and other pre- and post-trial motions.

Prior to re-joining Severson in 2024, Mr. Guzzetta was a privacy attorney and litigator at Grellas Shah, LLP in Cupertino, California. Starting in 2020, he worked as an attorney in the cyber/data/privacy group at Cooley, LLP. He has also previously worked for Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher, LLP, in Palo Alto, California, and Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom, LLP in Palo Alto, California.

Mr. Guzzetta lives in Murphys, California with his wife and two children. In his free time, he enjoys woodworking, farming and travel.
