Communication is key to litigation. Whether written or oral, clear and concise communications with Judges, clients, and opposing parties is essential to a speedy and accurate assessment of risk, and resolution of lawsuits.

Ken Miller has years of experience representing the nation's top financial institutions in both the mortgage and financial services industries. As a member of Severson & Werson's Financial Services Litigation Practice Group, out of its Orange County office, Mr. Miller has obtained hundreds of favorable judgments for his clients throughout California in both state and federal courts. Mr. Miller's experience litigating in California, and New York, as well as working as a legal assistant in Hawaii prior to becoming an attorney, give Mr. Miller a unique perspective regarding the law and litigation. Mr. Miller's wide-ranging experience allows him to approach legal issues and challenges from multiple angles and perspectives and enables him to understand and communicate to his clients the fundamental issues as perceived by all parties to a case.

Mr. Miller graduated from the William S. Richardson School of Law at the University of Hawaii, magna cum laude, in 2009. While in Law School, Mr. Miller was the editor-in-chief of the University of Hawaii Law Review and was the team captain of the Jessup International Moot Court Team. Prior to law school, Mr. Miller earned a B.A. in Philosophy from UC Santa Barbara. Before joining Severson & Werson in 2013, Mr. Miller was an associate at Kelley Drye & Warren LLP (New York).
