Michael Nguyen strongly believes in providing clients the best representation through all stages of litigation by providing clear lines of communication and working hard to achieve the best outcomes efficiently.

Michael Nguyen is an Associate of Severson & Werson's Irvine office and is part of the Insurance Practice Group. Mr. Nguyen represents major insurance companies through all stages of litigation including trial. He has experience handling high-exposure cases involving catastrophic injuries and wrongful death arising out of vehicular collisions, trucking accidents, and premises liability claims. Geared with this experience and knowledge, Mr. Nguyen understands what it takes to obtain successful outcomes for his clients and provide meaningful representation.

Before joining Severson & Werson, Mr. Nguyen was a litigator at a national insurance defense law firm where he managed a diverse case load. He handled all aspects of litigation and was able to obtain favorable outcomes for his clients at trial. While Mr. Nguyen understands that importance of vigorous representation, he also strives to resolve disputes quickly and efficiently, without compromising quality.

Mr. Nguyen received his J.D. from the Chapman Fowler School of Law in 2020 and received a B.A. from the University of California Los Angeles in 2014. While in law school, Mr. Nguyen clerked at a prominent plaintiff's litigation firm assisting injured parties navigate through the litigation process.

Mr. Nguyen is licensed to practice in the California.

When not practicing law, Mr. Nguyen enjoys spending time with his family and friends. On the weekends, he and his wife Emily enjoy spending their time outdoors, hiking and camping.
