Sharon C. Collier is a formidable trial attorney. She takes a practical, thorough, and creative approach in litigation to resolve her client's disputes whether in settlement negotiations or at trial.

Sharon is a trial attorney. She is an Associate Member of ABOTA and recognized as a Board Certified Civil Trial Advocate by the National Board of Trial Advocacy. Specializing in taking tough cases to trial, Sharon has successfully tried many significant cases to verdict, including claims in the areas of unfair competition, intellectual property, breach of contract, fraud, discrimination, employment, and personal injury.

Adept at representing businesses in litigation matters, Sharon handles disputes ranging from breach of contract, fraud, discrimination, unfair competition, employment, to intellectual property rights. Sharon has represented small business, public international conglomerates, as well as public entities.

Sharon frequently represents clients in insurance litigation cases involving catastrophic personal injury claims. She has effectively handled a wide variety of personal injury cases concerning motor vehicle and trucking accidents, work-related injuries, construction site injuries, premises liability, product defect claims, and food borne illness. Sharon's skillful and thorough trial preparation often develops crucial evidence which leads to early and decisive settlement.
