

Jeane Struck, Esq. Joins JAMS in San Francisco

April 11, 2016

San Francisco – JAMS, the largest private provider of mediation and arbitration services worldwide, today announced the addition of Jeane Struck, Esq. to its panel. Ms. Struck will be based in San Francisco and will hear cases throughout Northern California. She will serve as a mediator in a variety of disputes including Business/Commercial, Construction Defect, Government/Public Agency, Personal Injury/Torts, Professional Malpractice and Real Property.

Ms. Struck has experience with a wide variety of cases involving architects and engineers, general contractors and subcontractors, property managers, businesses, public entities, sports organizations, athletes, physicians, nurses, psychologists, pharmacists and other health industry professionals.

With more than 30 years of experience, Ms. Struck has developed a particular expertise in medical and psychotherapy issues. This enables her to provide an evaluative look into personal injury, medical malpractice and other health services professional liability matters. Ms. Struck previously served as a settlement conference judge and arbitrator for the Santa Cruz County Superior Court. She has also served as a settlement conference panelist for the San Francisco and Marin County Superior Courts.

“Jeane has an excellent reputation for bringing parties together, no matter the complexities or sensitivities involved,” said Chris Poole, JAMS president and CEO. “We’re so pleased to have her join our panel.”

“Given the current state of litigation in California, mediation is usually the best and most expeditious method for getting your case resolved,” said Ms. Struck. “I am excited to join the panel of talented neutrals in Northern California and I look forward to working with attorneys to create the best resolutions possible for their clients’ disputes.”

Ms. Struck received her B.A. from University of California, Santa Cruz and her J.D. from Santa Clara University School of Law. She is currently a member of the law firm Severson & Werson in San Francisco.

About JAMS

Founded in 1979, JAMS is the largest private provider of mediation and arbitration services worldwide. With Resolution Centers nationwide and abroad, JAMS and its more than 300 exclusive neutrals are responsible for resolving thousands of the world’s important cases. JAMS may be reached at 800-352-5267.